TO: WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT COMMUNITY

SUBJECT: WIA FUNDS FOR EMPLOYMENT TRAINING NETWORK SFP

The Employment Development Department (EDD) Workforce Investment Division announces the availability of up to $900,000 in Workforce Investment Act (WIA) funds to be awarded to the successful respondent to a Solicitation for Proposal (SFP) for the continued operation of the Employment Training Network (ETN). The ETN arranges for technical materials and consultants to assist WIA administrators and program operators to improve their operations. A complete description of the proposal requirements is contained in the attached SFP package.

This SFP is open to public, private non-profit, and private for-profit organizations. Proposals must be received by EDD's ETN SFP Team no later than 3:00 p.m. on November 1, 2005. Detailed mailing/delivery instructions are included in the SFP. There will be no Bidders' Conference related to this SFP, however, questions will be accepted until October 3, 2005, by e-mail at ETNSFP@edd.ca.gov. All questions and answers will be released in an Information Bulletin through the EDD Workforce Community Web site no later than October 12, 2005.

Copies of the SFP, as well as related information, are available in electronic form in the attachment to this bulletin. If you have any questions regarding this bulletin, please contact April Eales at (916) 653-9150.
